About us

Wedding stationery can be expressive, fun, informal, stylish, modern, contemporary, individual and unique in addition to reflecting your attitude, character and lifestyle.

Through personal experience and research we have found that wedding stationery is a time consuming and potentially costly affair. As a result our aim is to endeavour to make the whole concept less expensive and demanding and more manageable by undertaking this one task for you at a most competitive price.

We provide you with bespoke stationery that we design and create after full consultation with you as to your personal wishes and choices as to font, ink and ribbon colour. We specialize in modern wedding stationery with a respect for tradition.

Our designs are created by our onsite designer who works hard to exceed your expectations of beautiful, handmade and unique wedding stationery. We offer you designer wedding stationery at a fraction of the price. All our wedding stationery is made to order and personalized. Your individual details are printed directly onto the luxury card we use for all our products.
